Prof. J. W. Ireland, superintendent of the Stanford Graded School, and a polished, elegant gentleman, will be married next Thursday to Miss Bush Grinstead, the beautiful daughter of Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville. Rev. W. H. Kendrick, of Maryland, uncle of the groom, will perform the ceremony. The wedding will be a quiet, home affair, only the close friends and near relatives of the contracting parties being expected. After the ceremony the young couple will leave for a short bridal tour to Northern Kentucky for a visit to the groom's relatives, and will return the first of the year to reside in Stanford.

Mr. Henry A. Pleasants and Miss Sarah E. King were married at the Christian church parsonage in Danville at 2:30 yesterday afternoon by Rev. H. C. Garrison. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only a few close friends and relatives being present. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Pleasants enjoyed a delightful repast at Hon. and Mrs. Robert Harding's. The groom is one of Lincoln county's best men, sober, industrious and the soul of honor. His bride is a handsome brunette, highly accomplished and very popular. She is a daughter of the late S. H. King and is indeed a most excellent young woman. Both Mr. and Mrs. Pleasants have lived in the Mt. Xenia section for years and no citizens in that splendid neighborhood stand higher. We heartily congratulate Mr. Pleasants on the jewel he has won and wish him and his all the pleasure that can come their way.

At the beautiful home of Hon. and Mrs. Robert Harding in Danville at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Miss Sadie Lee Stagg and Mr. William M. Riffe were joined in wedlock's holy bonds. The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. Jessie Pleasants Stagg, of the Mt. Xenia section, and is accomplished, pretty and popular. The groom, who is a son of Mr. Jesse P. Riffe, of the West End, is a splendid young man, industrious and moral, and is most liked by those who know him best. He is to be congratulated on winning the heart and hand of so excellent a young lady as his bonnie bride. After the marriage ceremony the bridal couple and a few friends were delightfully entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Harding. The menu, which was very elaborate, was prepared by Klein, of Louisville. The Interior Journal, which includes Mrs. Riffe in its list of "special friends," joins her many friends and those of her "old man" in wishing them long lives filled to overflowing with happiness. The bride was handsomely gowned and her natural beauty showed to its best advantage. The occasion was a most joyful one and that the union will prove a happy one we have every reason to believe.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a gripe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."

It is a good plan to take a dose of the Tablets when you have a cold. They promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by all druggists.

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

Now that Christmas is mighty near here the subject of candy is an absorbing one with the young people at least who will be surprised to read these figures: In 1850 there were 383 manufacturers listed for the United States, with a total invested capital of $1,035,671, a total of $458,904 paid in wages and a product valued at $3,080,671. The figures for 1900, according to the 12th census, show 4,297 manufacturers, 33,583 employees earning $10,867,687 a year in wages; an invested capital of $35,155,361 and an annual product valued at $81,290,543. The best experts put the value of the present output at from $100,000,000 to $125,000,000, but this, as before intimated, is far below the mark, because some very large concerns, some of which have sales of more than $100,000 a year, are not scheduled as manufacturers, as they make candy only for their own retail trade, and sell none of it to other dealers, $120,000,000 worth of candy or nearly two pounds to every man, woman and child in the country. Now is the time to get your share.

MRS. JEFFERSON DAVIS, wife of the President of the Southern Confederacy, still keeps her residence in New York, although she goes South during the winter months. Mrs. Davis is now 81 years old and very feeble, although not ailing. Mrs. Davis is supported by Editor Joseph Pulitzer, of the New York World, who keeps her from feeling that she is a pensioner on his goodness by paying her for articles that she rarely writes. It is one of the noblest deeds of the great editor and one that endears him to every Southern heart.

WITH Congress in session only a week, over 10,000 bills have been introduced in the House alone. Of this number 5,373 are known as public bills and 5,963 are designated as private measures, for the reason that they are in the interest of individuals or corporations. Of the latter class pension bills constitute the great bulk of the number presented. The members are evidently working over time to fool constituents, who will never hear of most of the bills again.

A BILL introduced in the House by Representative Humphreys, of Mississippi, strikes a body blow at "blind tigers" in prohibition States. It compels the Federal government to make public the identity and location of the holders of Federal liquor licenses. A splendid bill and we hope it will pass. We have always contended that government licenses should be prima facie evidence that whisky is sold by the holder.

DEATH reaped a rich harvest among men who play games during the year now coming to a close. As usual, football leads with 21 victims. Baseball is second, with eleven fatal strikeouts, and the running turf turf with nine fatalities. Boxing, supposed to be the most brutal of all sports, recorded only six deaths, which is only one more than the total for the year previous.

THE Jamestown Exposition should be one of the most interesting from a historical point of view that was ever given in this country. It is in section made famous by two wars and every inch of it is filled with historical memories. It is hoped that Congress will be more liberal than usual with such enterprises and vote a big appropriation. The event is scheduled for 1907.

THE press boys all over Kentucky sympathize with John A. Baird, city editor of the Louisville Times, who fell down a flight of steps at his home and fractured his skull. The chances are against his recovery.

The Children's Delight.

When you consider the terrible times you used to live in childhood under the infliction of castor oil, salts and senna, brimstone and treacle, and other horrors, you can perhaps appreciate the children's delight with such a pleasant medicine for impure blood, stomach or bowel troubles, as Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Besides being pleasant to take, it is unequalled by any other medicine in the wide range of its curative powers for nearly all children's diseases. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, C. W. Adams Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

REYNOLDS.—At his home on Fishing Creek, Thursday, Dec. 7, 1905, at about 9:30 A. M., James F. Reynolds breathed his last after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia and heart trouble. His death was a shock to the entire community, for although he had been very sick, his many friends thought him better, and when it was announced that "Frank" was dead, a gloom was cast over the vicinity, for we realized that one of our best citizens had gone. He lacked just two months of being 44 years of age. He leaves besides a heartbroken widow, who was Miss May Mercer, seven children, six boys and one girl, the oldest not yet 21 years old, and the youngest scarcely four. He was a member of Waynesburg Baptist church, having joined in 1882 and had since been a consistent member. In politics he was a true blue democrat, always voting and working for the best interests of his party. He was hardly able to sit up on Nov. 7, but went and cast his vote for the splendid ticket elected that day, saying that he did not feel satisfied to stay away and not vote. He was a charter member of the Macabees of Waynesburg, and also of the Modern Woodmen, holding a $500 life and sick and accident policy in the former and a $500 life certificate in the latter. He was born just a short distance from where he died and had spent most of his life in that vicinity and was well respected by all who knew him. A large crowd attended the funeral services, which were conducted at the church on Friday afternoon by Rev. J. L. Owens, after which the body was laid to rest in the Waynesburg cemetery. A good man has gone to his reward. The entire neighborhood joins in heartfelt sympathy and asks them not to give way to sorrow but lean on the strong arm of Jesus and look forward to the time when they can meet the husband and father in that home where sickness and death never come. M. G. R.

FRUITS of all kinds for Xmas at Farris'.

MCROBERTS. Mr. Oliver P. McRoberts, who celebrated his 90th birthday Dec. 4, died at his home in Danville Tuesday evening. He was a native of this county many years and was born near Stanford. He entered business when a young man with his cousin, the late Thomas McRoberts, of Danville, and for many years conducted a dry goods store. Later he moved to Nashville, where he carried on a real-estate business. He went to Danville from Tennessee about 20 years ago, where he resided until his death. Two children survive Mr. McRoberts—Miss Mary McRoberts and Mr. Oliver P. McRoberts, Jr., both of Danville. His wife, who was Miss Mary Hunton, of Lincoln county, preceded him to the grave many years ago. He was a close relative of Messrs. John J., W. B. and P. M. McRoberts, of this place, who attended his burial at Danville yesterday. Dr. E. M. Green, of the Presbyterian church, preached the funeral.

CARTER.—Shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Elizabeth Logan Carter, relict of Mr. Edward Carter, breathed her last after months of suffering from a nervous trouble. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Jas. H. Baughman, and a half brother, Mr. Hume Logan, of Louisville. Few, if any better women ever lived in this section and her death carries sorrow wherever she was known. Many years ago Mrs. Carter joined the Christian church and she had been a consistent member since. She was a member of the congregation at McCormack's, but some four months ago united with the Christian church here. Her home was ever the stopping place of preachers and scarcely ever was there services at McCormack's church that she did not entertain the preacher. Mrs. Carter made her home with her daughter and the two were almost inseparable. In fact the good mother almost worshipped her only child and her love was fully reciprocated. Deceased was 59 years old and was born in Missouri. She moved to Kentucky when quite young, however, and the greater part of her life had been spent in Lincoln county. Truly a godly woman has left this world for the eternal home, where pain is not felt and troubles are unknown. May those who weep soon dry their tears in realization of the fact that their loss is her great gain. At 2 o'clock this afternoon Rev. L. M. Omer will preach a short funeral sermon at the late home, Eld. Joseph Ballou will offer a prayer, a song or two will be sung and then the remains will be taken to Buffalo cemetery and laid beside those of the husband who preceded her to the grave only about 16 months. Thus another good mother is taken from earthly scenes to bask in the sunshine of the land that is fairer than day.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Better Late Than Never.

It would, of course, be best for you to be careful about what, when, and how you eat—as never to suffer from any dyspeptic or bowel trouble. But if you do slip up, and begin to suffer the consequences of indiscretions in diet, it is better to begin then, although late, to look after your digestion.

At this stage of the game, the best thing to do is to take Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It is a pure, digestive tonic, and acts on both stomach, liver, and bowels, curing permanently, and without bad after-effects, such dangerous diseases as constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, etc. Try it. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.
